

Adventures
in the Night

Flash!!! Lightning
streaked across the sky as Nathan sat reading a book in his bedroom. "Nathan, time for bed," his mom called. "Okay, mom," he replied. He got into his bed

and was soon fast asleep.

Suddenly the noise of thunder
was mixed with cries of alarm.
He looked out the window and saw his town going up in flames!
Viking raiders were running toward his house with torches!

He quickly jumped out of bed, leaped into his clothes, grabbed his sword, and ran out the back door. He ran as fast as he could toward the woods but he heard shouts behind him. He glanced around and saw some raiders running after him. When he looked ahead he saw more raiders in his path!

Nathan drew his sword but it wilted like a spaghetti noodle! He looked in dismay at the sagging sword.

As the Vikings got closer he started flapping the sword
at them.

One big raider threw some rocks at him. One rock hit Nathan's hand and knocked the sword to the ground. Then before Nathan could duck another one hit him in the head!

He blacked out. Next thing he knew he woke up in his bed and saw his mom standing above him. "It's time to go to school, honey." He sat up and felt his head it was fine!

"Mom, I have to tell you about this dream I had..."

The End.
