

The Magic Rose

Once there lived a couple who had no children. They wanted a baby. Finally they had an idea. They would go to the old wizard for help. On the way they met an old wolf. He seemed nice but he was very sly. He asked what they were doing. They told him. He said good luck and left. The wolf went straight to the tower.

He asked the wizard what one would do to have a child. He said, "A magic rose." The wolf set out for the rose at once. Shortly after the couple got to the tower they told the wizard their story. He said they needed a magic rose. On the way to the magic rose garden they met the wolf again. He said "I went to the wizard to get the rose for you but it was gone!!!" Sad hearted they went back to the wizard's tower.

They told him the rose was gone. He said "it is not gone!!!" They went back to the rose garden the rose was there. They took it to the wizard. He made tea out of it. The woman drank it and was pregnant.
