

Froggy Froggy

There once was a poison dart frog named Play-Fun-Fun. He was a very nice frog who wanted to play forever and ever. One day he walked into the deepest darkest woods with a light on his head. He called his light his cool light hat.

In the woods he met a lion named A-Dee-Dee. This lion was not scary at all. Play-Fun-Fun asked A-Dee-Dee if he would like to play together. A-Dee-Dee told him that he would love to play but only for one minute. They played for one minute and then said good-bye to each other.

Then, Play-Fun-Fun climbed a tree because he was so mighty strong. He wanted to play in the mud, so he did. He had so much fun in the mud. He was covered all over.

At home he played again in his room with his mom and dad. Then he ate supper and took a bath. He had a long day so he went right to sleep after that.
